TOM HENRY, the mountain boy, has come out of his great controversy with the Kentucky editors with his tail up—Louisville Argus.

The peppering he has received appears to have had a good effect.

It is reported on authority, said to be good, that Mary Anderson, is to marry the Duke of Portland. Mary should bring him to Louisville and make a Democrat out of him.

The opening date of the Kentucky Association has been changed from May 15 to May 14, and the annual sale of the yearling thoroughbreds will be on the 13th, 14th and 15th. The Louisville races begin on the 16th.

Of the 10,746,254 gallons of whisky in bond in this, the Seventh District of Kentucky, on December 1st, 36,538 gallons were made during November. During the same month 161,841 gallons were withdrawn from bond, of which 7,983 were exported.

CHRISTMAS as an occasion for good cheer and the indulgence and interchange of kindly sentiments, has gained sway even where the sublime and simple faith on which it is founded has not. Hence the importance of the part our stores take in the festivities of these holidays. Washington Irving's quaint Knickerbocker theory that the stomach was the seat of the human soul thus finds some measure of verification, and the prevailing spirit of Christmas cheer is rightly expected to quicken the charities of all, and to tighten the chords of universal human brotherhood.

FEED the birds this cold dreary weather, especially when we have snow upon the ground. They can get little or no food and therefore perish. Their plumage is handsome, and in the warm months of the year they give us sweet music. They are valuable in a dollars and cents point of view. They destroy the worms and insects which destroy our fruit, grain and vegetables. Many complain because they eat the fruit and grain. They are entitled to it, and it is an ascertained fact that for every dollar's worth of fruit and grain they take, at least five dollar's worth is saved to the owner. Take a small paper tray, such as the grocers have, put it in a tree or nail on top of a post six or eight feet from the ground, tie a few orange or other thorn bushes around the post to keep the cats off (cats have a horror of thorns). Let the distance be twenty feet or so in the rear of the kitchen, and give the birds some scraps from the table once or twice every day. It is but little trouble and no expense. If the birds could talk they would thank you for the kind act.

The Philadelphia Press in an article on the subject of caring for pauper children says: If we are to prevent the growth of a class which will always be a burden upon the more fortunate of the present and future generations, pauper children must be taught not only the commonest and cheapest forms of labor, but the hand or brain must be trained until the pauper child has at least an equal start in life in this respect with dren who are not paupers. In the average private family the poor-house child is hardly likely to gather enough information by snatches to overbalance the depressing knowledge of the fact that he is a pauper. The training with which the pauper child should have he can hardly acquire outside of an industrial school, and the establishment of industrial schools in the counties, while more expensive at the outstart, would in the end prove more economical than permitting the pauper children to grow as Topsy did, to increase the class of criminals or to relapse into a state of vagabondage and worthlessness.

The Local Paper.

The Chicago Tribune, one of the leading papers of the west, tells a great deal of truth in a few words in the following article:

What tells so readily the standard of a town or city as the appearance of its paper? And its youth or its age can as well be determined as by a personal notice. The enterprise of its citizens is depicted by its advertisements, their liberality by the looks of the people. Some papers show a good, solid, healthy foundation, plerotic purse, a well-to-do appearance generally; others show a striving to contend with the grasping thousands around them, trying to wrench out an existence from the close-fisted community around them. An occasional meteoric display in its columns show what it can do if it had the means, but it cannot continue its expensive work until support comes which ought to readily be granted.

A newspaper is like a church; it wants fostering; then it can reflect credit on its location. Take your home paper. It gives you more news of immediate interest than New York or other papers; it talks to you when other papers belie you; it stands up for your rights; you always have a champion in your home paper, and those who stand up for you should certainly be kindred and equal, and you must rise or fall together. Therefore it is to your interest to support your home paper; not grudgingly, but in liberal spirit; as a pleasure, not as a disagreeable duty; but as an investment that will amply pay the expenses.

THE POTATO AND THE ONION.

The potato went out on a mash, And sought an onion bed; "That's the life for me!" observed the squash, As all the beets turned red. "Go away!" the onion, weeping cried: "Your love, I cannot be; The pumpkin be your lawful bride; You can't love with me!"

But onward still the tuber came, And laid down at her feet; "On onion beds by any name, And it will smell as wheat; And I, too, am an early rose, And you I've come to see; So don't turn by your lovely nose, But spinach with me!"

"I do not carrot all to wed: So go, sir, if you please!" The modest maiden meekly said, "And lettuce, pray, have peace; Go think that you have never seen Myself or smiled my sight! Too long a maiden I have been For favors in your rye!"

"Ah spare a cuss!" the tuber prayed: "My cherryed bride you'll be! You are the only weeping maid That's current now with me!" And as the wily tuber spoke He caught her by surprise, And giving her an artichoke, Devoured her with his eyes.

The Girls Who Marry Titles.

American girls who marry foreign adventurers are much in the same position as men who buy mining claims with their eyes shut. They must trust to luck for the yield and sometimes for the title, and they ought not to be surprised if they get dirt instead of gold dust and pieces of stone in place of nuggets. A mine worth owning is never sold for a song. A husband worth marrying never makes a market of his title. But when a fool with money buys a mine in the dark he has no right to grumble if he finds himself swindled. When a girl sells herself for the sake of wearing a flimsy handle to her name, she ought not to cry if she finds herself wedded to a worthless vagabond. Foreigners who travel on their shape and title to pick up a rich wife are never anything but worthless vagabonds.

The Supply Exhausted.

A whisky salesman from Kentucky called on a Market street dealer with a view to selling him a bill of liquors. "I am glad to see you," said the dealer to the agent from Kentucky. "I am getting low on fine grades, and I wish you would have a few barrels shipped at once by express."

"I am afraid you will have to wait a short time," said the salesman. "I hate to disappoint you, but we can't fill an order for high priced whiskies under two months."

"What is the matter?" asked the dealer. "I have just received a dispatch from my firm to the effect that since the election of Mr. Carlisle to the Speakership the home demand has been so great as to exhaust the supply."

Fashion Notes.

Velvet is gradually taking the place of plush. Some dresses are made wholly of Jersey cloth.

Carls an inch long have returned to the nape of the feminine neck.

Freckles are now fashionable since the Princess Louise has them.

Krueger China is a cracked ware embellished with forget-me-not.

Brides on the continent no longer wear gloves at the ceremony.

Black lace net darned with gold thread in geometric patterns will be used for ball dresses.

In cloth coats the Newmarket takes precedence in popular favor.

High crowned hats are considered the most stylish.

Bonnets, gloves, handkerchiefs and stockings now correspond with the dress in color.

Jersey cloth is made into tailor suits as severely as possible.

One or the Other Must Go.

The Maysville street cars kill on an average about four hogs per week. Not enough room for a hog and a car on the track at the same time.

The tobacco exhibition at Helena Station will take place to-morrow. A premium of $35 will be given for the best sample offered.

Hon. Thos. L. Jones is looming up as a candidate for Senator. He will have a strong following.

Terrible Accident at Denver.

DENVER, Col., Dec. 23.—A heart-rending accident happened in the switch yard of the Burlington Road. A number of boys, while crossing the yard on returning from school, made an attempt to pass between two sections of a freight train, which were coming together. The leading boys got through all right, but the ones who blindly followed their leaders were caught. George Miller, a six-year-old son of John Miller, who lived near by, had his head caught between the two bumpers, almost crushing it from the body. The other boys were more lucky and succeeded in scrambling out from under the cars. The train men observed the boys when it was too late, but the engineer stopped the cars just as the bumpers met, which was the means of saving some of the boys' lives.

A Bachelor Takes His Own Life.

GALENA, Ill., Dec. 23.—Jack Stanley, a single man, and well-known hunter of Southern Wisconsin, residing at Bloomington, is dead, having taken his own life by shooting himself through the temple with a revolver. Stanley was missed from his usual rounds by his friends, who suspected he had gone hunting. Later his bachelor quarters were searched and he was found lying dead in his bed, with his hands crossed over his breast and a pistol in his hand. He had shot himself in the temple, the ball passing clear through and out the other side of his head. The deceased was the possessor of large property in bonds and real estate, and owned a valuable drove of cattle at the time of his death. He has been afflicted with melancholy of late, from some unexplained cause.

Government Departments and Christmas.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—Different action has been taken by the heads of the various Government Departments. The Interior, Navy, and Treasury Departments will be closed on Monday, the War Department and Department of Justice will close at 12 M., the State and Postoffice Departments will keep open all day. All the Departments will be closed on Christmas Day.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

cures Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Rheumatic Gout, General Debility, Catarrh, and all disorders caused by a thin and impoverished, or corrupted, condition of the blood; expelling the blood-poisons from the system, enriching and renewing the blood, and restoring its vitalizing power.

During a long period of unparalleled usefulness, AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has proven its perfect adaptation to the cure of all diseases originating in poor blood and a weakened vitality. It is a highly concentrated extract of Sarsaparilla and other blood-purifying roots, combined with Iodide of Potassium and Iron, and is the safest, most reliable, and most economical blood-purifier and blood-food that can be used.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured. "AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has cured me of the Inflammatory Rheumatism, with which I have suffered for many years." W. H. MOORE, Durham, Ia., March 2, 1882.

"Eight years ago I had an attack of Rheumatism so severe that I could not move from the bed, or dress, without help. I tried several remedies without much if any relief, until I took AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, by the use of two bottles of which I was completely cured. I have not been troubled with the Rheumatism since. Have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, and it still retains its wonderful popularity. The many notable cures it has effected in this vicinity convince me that it is the best blood medicine ever offered to the public." E. F. HARRIS, River St., Buckland, Mass., May 13, 1882.

"Last March I was so weak from general debility that I could not walk without help. Following the advice of a friend, I commenced taking AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, and before I had used three bottles I felt as well as I ever did in my life. I have been at work now for two months, and think your SARSAPARILLA the greatest blood medicine in the world." JAMES MAYNARD, 620 West 42d St., New York, July 19, 1882.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA cures Scrofula and all Scrofulous Complaints, Erysipelas, Eczema, Ringworm, Blotches, Sores, Boils, Tumors, and Eruptions of the Skin. It clears the blood of all impurities, aids digestion, stimulates the action of the bowels, and thus restores vitality and strengthens the whole system.

PARENTS beware of the toy pistol. It is a deadly article. Do not permit your children to handle it. The following is from a New York paper. Such things are constantly occurring throughout the land, especially upon the holidays. We wish every father and mother could read this: "At Jamestown, N. Y., George Smith, aged thirteen, while playing with a toy pistol on Thanksgiving day, received a wound in the hand which resulted in lock-jaw, and death occurred on Saturday, despite constant medical attention. The boy's sufferings were intense for several days before he died."

SHAKESPEARE'S comedy, Twelfth Night, was beautifully enacted at the opera house Saturday evening by Miss Josephine Reiley and her superb company. Miss Reiley appeared as Viola and gave a very artistic interpretation of the character. She undoubtedly gave evidence of rare histrionic ability and at no distant date promises to be first among American actresses. Miss Reiley's support was of unusual excellence. Mr. Frederick Paulding's Duke of Orsino was a most creditable performance and one that called forth no inconsiderable applause from the audience. The entire performance was one of the best ever given in Maysville.

Baird's Minstrels.
This celebrated troupe will appear at the Opera House in an evening performance and at a matinee on New Year's day. There are thirty first-class artists and a large band with gold and silver instruments. A grand street parade will take place in the morning. The following is from the Ninesland (N. J.) Times:
Baird's Minstrels paraded our streets yesterday noon with one of the finest bands we have heard for a long time. If appearances are worth anything, these gentlemen must make a good impression wherever they go.
For a bright, lively, wholesome entertainment of mirth and music, commend us to Baird's minstrels—they more than fill all requirements. The entertainment was bright and sparkling, and laughter was loud and long continued during the evening. Charley Goodyear and Tom Warfield were the principal and most successful comedians, and varied the singing was unusually good. The song and dance was one of the finest of the entertainment. Taken as a whole, it was a performance of high order.

Christmas Parade.
The parade to-morrow has been arranged with a view of making it one of the most amusing events that ever took place in the city. It is something that everybody should see which they will have the opportunity to do, as it will move through all the principal streets.
The following is the line of march:
The procession will start from the corner of Second and Wall streets at one o'clock p. m., sharp, and proceed up Second to Limestone; up Limestone to Third; out Third to Bridge; down Bridge to East Maysville; counter-march to Third; up Plum to Fourth;
up Fourth to Limestone; down Limestone to Third; down Third to Wall; down Wall to Second; down Second to Holliday; grocery counter-march to Wall; down Wall to Front;
up Front to Market; up Market to Third;
down Market to Second, thence to rendezvous.

Rentz-Santley.
Referring to this troupe, which appears at the opera house to-night, the Youngstown (Ohio) News-Register says:
The regulation Saturday night audience, with the few extra paid-day throng in for season, assembled at the opera house Saturday evening to see well, to witness the spectacular, anatomical, opera glass performances of the Rentz-Santley Burlesque Company. In the first part of the entertainment some excellent singing was rendered and the olio was replete with meritorious specialties, but feature of the evening was the burlesque "Don Jose," a flashing extravaganza, brilliant with wit, humor and repertoire, rich in action, sparkling with beautiful, well-formed women, their divine curvatures, swelling motivations and undulATORY loveliness, enveloped in costumes rare and gaudy. Miss Alice Townsend,
"the Spanish Mother" was the star of the evening, and acquitted herself in a flattering manner.

No other medicine has won for itself such universal approbation in its own city, state and country, and among all people, as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is the best combination of vegetable blood purifiers, with the iodide of potassium and iron, ever offered to the public.

A clear head is indicative of good health and regular habits. When the body feels heavy and languid, and the mind works sluggishly, Ayer's Cathartic Pills will wonderfully assist to a recovery of physical buoyancy and mental vigor.
The constipated should use them.

Boss Horse Shoers.
Messrs. Crawford & Short, of east Third street, put on one hundred and ninety-eight horse shoes on Monday. We are requested to return their thanks for past favors and to solicit a continuance of same in the future. d23d1w1t

Pure Candies.
I have a full line of holiday confectioneries of all kinds. I make my own candy and guarantee it to be absolutely pure. Nuts, raisins, figs, almonds, and a great variety of suitable things for the holidays at reasonable prices.

A Quick Recovery.
It gives us pleasure to state that the merchant who was reported to be at the point of death from an attack of pneumonia, has entirely recovered by the use of Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs.
Naturally he feels grateful for the benefits derived from using this remedy for the lungs and throat; and in giving publicity to this statement we are actuated by the motives of public beneficence, trusting that others may be benefited in a similar manner.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE

The Most Successful Remedy ever discovered as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Read proof below.

Kendall's Spavin Cure.

SANTA ROSA, California, Feb. 9, 1883.

B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:—I feel it a duty to others suffering with the piles and falling of the rectum to write to you. I have had the piles and prolapsus of the rectum for five years, for the past three years I have suffered the most agonizing pain. I tried everything without relief, but after ten days' use of Kendall's Spavin Cure, I have not seen or heard of the piles since. One who has not suffered as I have cannot comprehend the great joy that I felt at being cured of a disease almost worse than death. I had a valuable young horse that had a large bunch gather on his breast bone. I tried all kinds of liniments and had it cut open without any benefit. Saw your advertisement and bought a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure and ordered my teamster to use as directed. In less than one week the lump had disappeared. Thinking that a liniment that would do what Kendall's Spavin Cure has done for my horse might benefit more. I tried it as a last resort. With gratitude and best wishes for your success, I am faithfully yours,

J. H. GLENN.

SPAVIN CURE On HUMAN Flesh.

VEVAY, IND., Aug. 12th, 1881.

DR. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:—I am pleased to receive your circular. Please send me some with my imprint, printed on one side only. The Kendall's Spavin Cure is in excellent demand with us, and not only for animals, but for human ailments also. Mr. Jos. Norris, one of the leading farmers in our county, sprained an ankle badly, and knowing the value of the remedy for horses, tried it on himself, and it did far better than he had expected. Cured the sprain in very short order. Yours respectfully,

C. O. THIENARD.

Price $1 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $5. All druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors, DR. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Enosburgh Falls, Vt. Send for illustrated circular.

PROVISIONS and Encouraged by the largely increased trade I have had during the last year, and being determined to further increase it the coming year, I have taken special pains in the selection of my stock for the fall and winter trade in order that I may be fully prepared to meet the wants of my customers in every particular. My goods are all first-class as to quality; purchased from first hands for cash, and I risk nothing in saying that I am prepared to successfully compete with any house in the city. I carry the largest and most complete stock of CANNED GOODS in the city, all strictly standard and guaranteed to give satisfaction. My house is headquarters for

What Dyspepsia Does.

It causes grievous pains by day and frightful dreams by night. It destroys the pleasure of a good dinner. It sours the disposition and makes its victim cross and petulant. It makes the breath bad, the eyes leaden, and the skin sallow. It makes the appetite capricious and unreasonable. It causes constant grumbling and complaining.

What "Brown's Iron Bitters" Does.

It invigorates the weakened stomach, and enables it to digest. It promotes the enjoyment of a hearty meal. It enriches the blood, improves the liver, and cheers the mind. It purifies the breath, clears the eyesight, and makes the skin natural. It brings a regular and healthy desire for food at proper times. Your DRUGGIST sells BROWN'S IRON BITTERS.
